VOL. IV. NO. 247.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

AGAIN AT HARLEM.

An October which for rain has beaten all records since the keeping of records on Chicago weather by the United States Signal Service began still keeps up its clip quite irrespective of the damage done to the flags and bunting of Jubilee week, and yesterday's reopening at Harlem was marred by a driving storm which, lasting for hours, brought general discomfort, to say nothing of the heavy track. Still there was a fair attendance at the racecourse, and there were on seventeen regular and two field bookmakers. The management has arranged, as well as can be done, protection from the elements known to racing of the late autumn, and doors and windows innumerable serve the purpose of keeping the racegoers dry and warm. The card was an excellent one. The wind blowing from the rear of the grandstand, spectators of the races were comfortable, although no glass windows obscure the sight at Harlem. Colonel Clark was kept warm by boxing up the sides of the judges' stand.

Andes ran a sixteenth at a breakaway, but at the next attempt a splendid start was made for the first race by Mr. Dwyer, the favorite soon got to and passed Nora Ives, who had jumped away quickest. Into the homestretch Andes led from Nora Ives and three lengths back came Canace and Falomacita, the others already out of it. Dupee, on the last named filly, cut in close to the inside rail, while Andes made a wide turn, so that at the betting ring Falomacita led, and finishing strongly, won the race easily from Canace, second, she beating Andes two lengths. Nora Ives finished fourth, driving.

Frank Bell, who has never shown himself to be great in the mud, was opened at 8 to 5 and drifted to 2 to 1. Hoiden was posted as his rider, and several of the bookmakers do not fancy this boy's style of sitting a horse. These men had profited by the defeat of Andes and so "plugged" Frank Bell. Now a few minutes before post time, Sweeney ran into the betting ring, crying "Put Beauchamp on Frank Bell." Immediately the colt went down to 7 to 5, but while some pencilers kicked, saying "A new book should be made," Frank Bell's price again advanced to 9 to 5 at the post. As the seven youngsters reached the gate and broke away, everybody exclaimed, "What a perfect start!" and surely horses were never off in better shape. However, it was "no go." Directly after the flag fell to a good start and Frank Bell at once opened two lengths on Genua, she running away from the others in the first eighth. Frank Bell led into the straight by several lengths and Judge Tarvin, third, was already beaten off by Genua. Beauchamp slowed down the leader at the last eighth and Genua coming on strongly, Frank Bell was sent to the whip one hundred yards out. It was a tight thing at the wire, but Frank Bell's number went up. Miss Marks, third, away back, just beat Judge Tarvin.

In the third race Plantain and The Devil ran up to form and finished one two, the former winning by a neck. But where was Don Quixote? He finished ten lengths behind The Devil. Plantain was never headed. At the quarter Hag-Favor was second and stayed within three lengths of the leader for the next half mile, where she collapsed and finished "absolutely." The Devil was third two lengths behind Her Favor up the backstretch and his rider was watching Don Quixote lying behind him. When Hothersall, on The Devil, found that Don Quixote could not or would not come on at the upper turn he cut out "lickety split" after Plantain, but, although he ran Bradley's horse close the final eighth, he could never get up.

There were five breakaways in the fourth race Abuse never being in front until the flag went down, then he led all the way. At the last sixteenth Timemaker and Donna Rita came fast and a hot finish ensued, the three placed horses being nearly abreast. Timemaker beat Donna Rita for place. Boney Boy looked good for some part of the money, but was outrun in the last eighth. Miss Marion was second up the backstretch, but stopped coming home. She had been prominent in the breakaways, while Abuse scarcely moved. Robinson was left standing at the post.

Refugee went out in front in the next race as if it was all over, and led to the homestretch. The darkness was coming on and this, with the spattering mud, which dirtied the colors, prevented the placing of the horses until well toward the grandstand. Then it was seen that Refugee was beaten and that the purse would go to either Gold Band or Double Dummy. The pair drove in, and Winslow, on the inside rail, was dangerously close, but only landed the third money, Gold Band winning. Refugee was a close fourth. Tranby was fourth close up at the far turn. Bishop Reed was beaten off. Sunburst, the favorite, did nothing.

A cold drizzling rain had fallen all the afternoon, and by the time of the closing event of the day it was raining hard and a high wind had risen. Silver Set went to the front in the backstretch and won as she pleased from W. C. T., he beating Newsgatherer easily for place. The fourth horse was close to Newsgatherer, the others beaten off.

The end of the betting ring, where formerly was worked the foreign book, is being fitted up (fenced in, etc.) and the rumor ran "They are going to start a skating rink this winter."

It was said that Riley Grannan took $5,000 out of the ring on Plantain. It seems strange that when such races come up the great plunger is always "there or thereabouts."

William Myer has tastefully decorated his stands in honor of the Peace Jubilee.

Charley Hughes was a visitor.

THE BELLE MEADE SALE.

The prices brought by the thoroughbreds sold by Gen. W. H. Jackson at Belle Meade last Wednesday and Thursday were up to expectations. The stallion Tremont was not sold, no one bidding for him. The principal competition Thursday was for the brood mares Madam Reel and Tulla Blackburn, concerning which the Nashville American says:

"The feature, or rather features, of the day were the exciting bidding contests on Madam Reel and Tulla Blackburn. The offering of these two great mares resulted in two of the liveliest bidding duels ever seen in a sales ring in Tennessee, the principals in the contest being C. H. Gillock, of Maplewood Stud, and S. T. Harbison, of Lexington, Ky., supposed to have been representing Col. Milton Young.

"When Madam Reel was led into the sales ring Mr. Harbison started her at $500. Mr. Gillock bid $1,000, and raised each one of Mr. Harbison's bids from $200 to $300 at every crack until the latter bid $2,500. Mr. Gillock raised this bid $1,500, but Harbison came with another hundred and got her for $4,100.

"Charles McMeekin, of the breeding firm of McMeekin & Applegate, of Lexington, Ky., started Tulla Blackburn at $500. Mr. Gillock bid $1,000. R. A. Hurt, of Jackson, raised this to $1,100, and Wm. Gerst, Jr., made it $1,200. Gillock said 'Two thousand,' and Hurt said 'Two thousand one hundred.' Harbison raised this to $2,500, which put Mr. Hurt out of the race, leaving Harbison and Gillock to fight the battle out. Mr. Gillock's next bid was $3,000. Mr. Harbison raised it by $100, and Mr. Gillock bid $4,000; Harbison said $4,100; Gillock said $5,000; Harbison said $5,100; Gillock said $6,000; Harbison said $6,100; Gillock said $7,000, and the Kentuckian began to look pale around the gills, but finally said $7,100. Mr. Gillock then made his last bid, which was $7,400. Mr. Harbison hesitated for a minute, but finally said $7,500, and got her."

The yearlings and weanlings sold Wednesday brought the following prices:

Thursday was devoted to the sale of stallions and broodmares. The imported sire, Dandie Dinmont, went to C. H. Gillock's Maplewood Stud Farm, for $1,500. He also secured the broodmare, Fairy, for $1,100, a great bargain. The other mares, being mainly young and untried, brought moderate prices, none reaching the $500 mark, though many were, beyond doubt, worth that sum and more. The total for the two days was $23,385 for 110 head.

Scratched—Chancery, 104; Hub Prather, 95.

Winner—B. f, by Falsetto—Jennie June.

Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second and third were driving also. Falomacita showed herself to be a wonder in the mud. She was off far back and naturally much used getting to the front. This was the cause of her stopping so badly at the end. Canace would certainly have won in a few more strides. This filly is game and was running great guns at the end. She is a hard luck filly. Andes hardly ran his race. He was short on early speed and lost a lot of ground by making a wide stretch turn. Nora Ives, off well on her stride, showed a lot of speed, but stopped badly. Outside of the first two there was little strong contention.

Scratched—Very Light, 95.

Overweights—Mountain Dew, 3 pounds.

Falomacita, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Canace, place, 8 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Andes, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. g, by Big Henry—Flora Leach.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving and staggering; second and third were driving also. It was a very close finish and the decision created considerable comment. Frank Bell's head was up, while Genua's was down at the wire. This is how the colt won. At the weights and as the race was run, Genua was the best. Ward lost considerable ground on the stretch turn and allowed the filly to swerve. Had he come inside of Frank Bell on the stretch turn, he could not have lost the race. Frank Bell stopped almost to a walk in the last fifty yards. On the other hand Genua was coming strong. Miss Marks, outrun the first part of it, made up a lot of ground from the three eighths post home. Judge Tarvin, slow to break, showed some speed, but not much. Approval never had a winning chance. Frank Bell stumbled passing the half mile post. Holden was scheduled to ride the latter, but Beauchamp was substituted at the last moment.

Scratched—Espionage, 115.

Overweights—Approval, 3 pounds.

Frank Bell, place, 3 to 5. Genua, place, 3 to 5. Miss Marks, show, even.

Winner—Ch. g, by Knight of Ellerslie—Banana.

Off at first break to a good start. Won driving to the limit; second driving also. Plantain had abundant speed, took the short route, and outgamed The Devil the last sixteenth. The finish on the latter was rather weak. Hothersall also lost a lot of ground on the turn. It looked at the eighth post, though, as if he would beat Plantain sure. At this point Hothersall foolishly drew his whip. This caused The Devil to swerve, and perhaps was the direct cause of his not winning. Don Quixote ran a very bad race. He stopped badly after going about three-quarters.

Throw this race of the Don's out entirely. He was beaten on the turn and was never touched with the whip, which showed judgment on Dupee's part. Her Favor collapsed in a heap after going about three furlongs. Inuendo finished strong and ran a good race for him.

Scratched—Branch, 90; Molo, 97; Al Fresco, 93; Lucid, 93.

Overweights—Her Favor, 2 pounds.

Plantain, place, 2 to 1 show, 1 to 2. The Devil, place, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. h, by Plevna—Abukru.

Post 8 minutes. Start good for all but Robinson. Won in a hard drive of three. Abuse ran one of his good races. Bloss got him off flying, picked the best going and made every post a winning one. He rides this horse better than anyone else. He showed good judgment by coming close on the rail at the head of the stretch. There was no choice in the going and by taking this position he shut off Boney Boy, who was coming strong. Timemaker, outrun the first part, was coming with a tremendous rush at the end. He surely would have won in a few more strides. The horse is very good now. Miss Marion never could get to the front. Abuse outran her from the drop of the flag. Donna Rita closed strong. She and Timemaker were both running faster than Abuse at the finish.

Scratched—May W., 106.

Abuse, place, 2 to 5. Timemaker, place, 7 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Donna Rita, show, 3 to 2.

Winner—B. f, by Ben d'Or—Essay.

Off at first break to a good start. Won hand ridden; second and third driving hard. Gold Band came away nicely the last quarter. She seemed to like the going. Double Dummy plodded along at even gait all the way. He was catching Gold Band fast at the finish. Winslow, far out of it the first seven furlongs, skinned the rails and finished very strong. Refugee gave it up after going a mile. So did Bishop Reed. The latter was eased at the end. Sunburst never had a winning chance. He is a bad horse these days.

Scratched—Inconstancy, 102; Elusive, 102; Treeby, 102; Teutonna, 102; Sutton, 107; Lena, 109.

Overweights—Winslow, 2½ pounds.

Winner—B. f, by Ben d'Or—Quickstep.

Off at first break to a good start. Won in a mild drive; second and third driving hard. Silver Set had speed to loan and could have won had the race been a mile or over. This performance was a great improvement over her last. On Wednesday last at Hawthorne she finished behind a worse lot than this. W. C. T., well played, ran his race. He never could get within hailing distance of Silver Set. Newgatherer got a trifle the worst of the break. Locust Blossom showed some speed. The race was always between the first four.
